SUBJECT: BLUE LANTERN LEVEL 3: PRE-LICENSE END USE CHECK ON APPLICATION 05-1007924 AND 05-1007927

REF: A. STATE 154528
1B. STATE 155401

05-1007924 - Maria Cristina Vera Medranda

11. (SBU) Embassy officers confirmed the identity and location of end-user Maria Cristina Vera Medranda. Vera and her husband, Jose Luis Vargas, sell firearms out of their home. Vera's firearms' distribution license expired on May 17, 2006 and there is no indication that a renewal is underway. During the interview with Embassy officials, Vargas was extremely uncooperative, refusing to answer Ref A questions. He said that they were now working with Austrian firearm company Glock and Taurus out of Brazil and did not need to answer our questions. Vera later reported that M.G. Suber and Associates is the local representative for Mossberg and Maverick through which they purchase weapons. She also noted that Suber and Associates had informed them of a restriction on the exportation of U.S. made pistols.

12. (SBU) Post was unable to obtain answers to questions outlined in reftel A and therefore recommends denial of application 05-1007924. The couple's connection to M.G. Suber and Associates is also uncertain.

Application 05-1007927 - Blanks CIA LTDA

13. (SBU) In response to reftel B questions on application 05-1007927, Embassy offices verified that Blanks CIA LTDA is a legitimate, registered firearms dealer in Ecuador. The company is owned and operated by Jaime Edmundo Zamora Espin and Pablo Ernesto Miranda Ruiz. Zamora is currently head of operations and is a retired Ecuadorian police officer. Both men were cleared by the Ecuadorian National Police as having no previous criminal records.

14. (SBU) Zamora and Miranda opened Blanks CIA in 2001 and primarily sell arms to security firms in Quito and Guayaquil and to individuals for sporting related activities. The two also own a private security firm "Tecnoaces" to which the majority of the arms are sold, Zamora affirmed. The company has adequate secured storage space and video surveillance, and reported never having had a security breach.

15. (SBU) Zamora said that M.G. Suber and Associates is the local representative of Mossberg and Maverick for rifle sales. He said M.G. Suber and Associates told him that the U.S. suspended the exportation of pistols about two years ago.

16. (SBU) Based on the information provided, we believe Blanks CIA LTDA would be a reliable recipient of USML items. However, the company's exact connection to M.G. Suber and Associates remains uncertain.
